The African Regional Intellectual Property Organization (ARIPO) is an Intergovernmental Organization. It was established by the Lusaka Agreement which was adopted by the Diplomatic Conference held in Lusaka on December 9, 1976. Presently, the Organization has nineteen member States, namely: Botswana, The Gambia, Ghana, Kenya, Lesotho, Liberia, Malawi, Mozambique, Namibia, Rwanda, Sao Tome and Principe, Sierra Leone, Somalia, Sudan, Swaziland, Uganda, United Republic of Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

The Organization was established to promote, harmonize and develop intellectual property laws and policies and to ensure that it contributes to the social, economic and technological development of its Member States and Africa as a whole.

In its quest to achieve the objective of harmonizing the laws of its Member States, ARIPO therefore seeks to engage the services of a Consultant (this can be a company or individual) to undertake a comparative study of Industrial Property Laws of Member States and make recommendations for harmonization.
